'No-Body' Found In Grave

EXCLUSIVE PICTURES of the investigation of the grave at the cave in the San Jacinto foothills are shown above. Top photo, arrival at the mouth of the cave by members of the Mounted Police, police officers and newsmen at 11:10 a.m. Second photo shows Chief August Kettmann and Lt. Robert White measuring the grave and height of the cross, while Johnny Hollinger looks on. Third photo shows

Kettmann and Nick Corselli looking at the bullet holes in a shovel found near the grave. Bottom, Desert Sun artist Jim Schilling drew this perspective of the route taken by the posse. From the old rodeo grounds the posse climbed to 2,000 feet and then dropped down to the cave at 1,800 feet. The hikers covered about two miles. See story on Page 2.

Cites Conflict With State, Federal Laws

City Expected To Appeal To Higher Court

The City of Palm Springs ban on "closed shops" through its right-to-work legislation today was declared illegal by Superior Court Judge Hilton McCabe in a decision rendered this noon at Indio.

Judge McCabe declared that "it is not for this court to say the City of Palm Springs has the right to enact the right-to-work law and, therefore, attempting to prevent that which the federal and state law says is lawful," referring to the "closed shop."

In the opinion issued out of Department 4 of the Superior court at noon today, Judge McCabe "enjoined and restrained the City of Palm Springs from enforcing the right-to-work ordinance." This particular decision was made only in relationship to the suit by the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, Local 440.

IN THE OTHER MATTER a suit against the city by the Culinary and Bartender's Union, Local 535, Judge McCabe allowed 30 days for the union to amend its complaint to show how they would be affected by the enforcement of the right-to-work ordinance, because this case was filed in Superior Court before the effective date of the ordinance.

The action will mean that the City of Palm Springs cannot use its right-to-work ordinance and that the Culinary and Bartender's Union's request for a preliminary injunction has been denied.

THE ELECTRICAL union, Local 440, will put up a bond of $1,000 to cover the preliminary injunction allowed by Judge McCabe.

On the latter suit, Judge McCabe's opinion contained 11 typewritten pages and covered all facets of the right-to-work law.

Both the unions and the city have indicated during the past months that the matter will be carried on to the highest courts for determination of the constitutionality of the Palm Springs right-to-work ordinance.

Area Democrats Oppose State 'Work' Legislation

In a tersely worded letter to Sen. Nelson Dilworth at Sacramento, the Palm Springs Area Democratic Club today attacked a City Council resolution asking the legislature to initiate state "right-to-work" laws.

The club charged that the council's attitude is "in direct contradiction to the attitude of the greatest part of this community" and represented the interests of a minority group, "the spokesman for which is the Palm Springs Employers Association."

The letter asserted that the council enacted its controversial right-to-work ordinance "in spite of vehement opposition," and that the action of the council in making its request to the state demonstrated its "weak case in current court litigation over the validity of the ordinance."

"This is a request to have its (the council's) chestnuts pulled from the fire," the letter explained, pointing out that the ordinance is being tested in Superior Court and faces the possibility of a test in the State Supreme Court. The club went on record as opposing right-to-work legislation on a municipal, state and national level.

Late News Bulletins

LOS ANGELES AP - Naval Intelligence officers were scheduled to talk to Stephen Nash today about four sailors who the 33-year-old transient claims he killed in a "package deal." Nash is the confessed slayer of 11 persons.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. AP - A new explosion early today rocked an area here that has been the scene of bombings and sniping, but police failed in hours of search to find where it occurred.

ACAPULCO, Mexico AP - Elizabeth Taylor "shopped" in four Mexican states for an easy divorce today and made plans to marry producer Mike Todd here Saturday.

Ike Asks Immigration Law Revision

Urges That U. S. Be Haven for Reds

WASHINGTON AP - President Eisenhower asked Congress today for new immigration legislation that would grant a haven in the United States to persons who "flee from Communist persecution and tyranny."

In a special message to Congress, the President also requested liberalization of the McCarran-Walter immigration act, basic immigration law of the land.

AT THE OUTSET of his message the President outlined the need for emergency legislation to help Hungarians and other refugees.

He said the eyes of the world have been fixed on Hungary where thousands of men, women and children have fled to seek asylum abroad.

"Our position of world leadership demands that, in partnership with other nations of the Free World, we be in a position to grant that asylum," Mr. Eisenhower said.

HE CALLED FOR TWO basic steps to help anyone, not Hungarians alone, fleeing from Communism:

"First, I recommend that the Congress enact legislation giving the President power to authorize the attorney general to parole into the United States temporarily under such conditions as he may prescribe escapees, selected by the secretary of state who have fled or in the future flee from Communist persecution and tyranny," the President said.

"Second, I urge the Congress promptly to enact legislation giving the necessary discretionary power to the attorney general to permit aliens paroled into the United States, who intend to stay here, to remain as permanent residents," he said.

Ives Says Labor To Have Help in 'Cleaning House'

WASHINGTON AP - Sen. Irving M. Ives said today the new Senate Labor Racketeering Committee will "help organized labor clean house."

Ives, who is expected to be vice chairman of the eight-man bipartisan committee set up by the Senate Wednesday, told newsmen that with the backing of responsible labor leaders the group can "do a real job."

He said the AFL-CIO Executive Council indicated Monday it wished to clean up racketeering in some segments of the labor movement, but he said that without subpoena powers labor itself could not do the whole job.

"Working with the labor leaders, we can do a real job," Ives said.

Chest Contributions Said 'Most Important'

Your contribution to the Palm Springs Community Chest will play the most important charitable role on the local scene.

This opinion was expressed by both Dewey Metzdorf, current campaign chief, and Oscar Stern vice president of the organization, who today sounded a warning "that unless contributions flow readily into the coffers of the Chest local charities will suffer considerably during the coming year."

"THERE IS ONLY one way in which the goal of $50,000 so necessary to the support of the agencies dependent upon the Chest can operate, and that is through the contributions of dollars to the chest by those who are interested in the welfare of indigent people here, the girl and boy scout movements and other worthwhile charities," declared Metzdorf.

The House of Tomorrow at 295 Hermosa Place is open for inspection by those interested in visiting this beautiful house at a donation

Eight Killed As Plane Hits School Yard

Many Children Injured; Planes Collide in Flight

VAN NUYS AP - A big DC-7B transport "on a test flight" and an Air Force jet plane collided in flight and crashed into populous San Fernando Valley today. One of the planes fell into the school yard at Pacoima Junior High School.

United Press Hollywood Correspondent Vernon Scott, who lives in Sherman Oaks, witnessed the school mishap from his home.

ON THE SCENE at the school he reported "bodies of kids are lying around the school yard. They are being covered with blankets."

Scott said that a driver from one of the seven ambulances dispatched to the school told him "at least four children are dead and 20 injured."

"THE SCENE IS horrible," Scott added. "The wreckage is scattered all over the school yard. The plane apparently didn't hit the school itself, but debris is scattered over several acres. Some of the heavy pieces are buried in the macadam covering the yard."

The crew of four in the DC-7B were believed killed. The pilot of the jet was ejected from his plane but is in critical condition.

Police Seek New Angles in Slaying Of Teen-Sisters

CHICAGO AP - Police bore down on new angles in their investigation into the slayings of two teen-aged sisters today following a skid row dishwasher's repudiation of his signed confession.

Authorities investigated a report by two high school boys who said they saw the girls only two blocks from their homes the night they disappeared Dec. 28.

The boys' statement followed reports by other witnesses who said they saw the victims on their way home from a theater that night. It also strengthened one police theory that the girls may have been forced into a car and murdered less than an hour later.

A neighborhood civic group, known as the Back of the Yards Council, asked 15,000 southwest side residents to turn citizens-detective. The council sent pictures of the victims to the residents along with questionnaires seeking information about the girls, their friends, and their recent actions.

THE WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast: Mostly clear today through Friday. Slightly warmer afternoons but continued cold tonight. Highs to 54-55; lows to 32-33; upper valleys, 52-62; lower valleys, 42-52.

High yesterday was 53, low was 36.

Kentucky Given 'Disaster' Status

By UNITED PRESS

President Eisenhower declared Kentucky floodlands a major disaster area where more rain, cold mounted to at least 10 in a four-state area where more rain, cold and snow added to the miseries of thousands left homeless.

The chief executive ordered federal aid to help the suffering in Kentucky, one of the hardest hit states. West Virginia has made a similar appeal.

VIRGINIA AND Tennessee also were hard hit by days of rain that turned placid mountain streams into raging torrents that pounded into one town after another.

Several towns were isolated and not even helicopters could land with desperately needed food and medicine. Damage soared to an estimated $15 million.

The President acted in response to an appeal by Kentucky Gov. A. B. Chandler who said a large part of Eastern Kentucky have been inundated by the worst floods in state history.

THE ARMY, NATIONAL Guard, Red Cross and civilian volunteers worked together against the natural barriers of water, mountains, and mud to try to move food and medical supplies into the stricken regions.

Cold, rain and snow were predicted for Kentucky, Virginia, and West Virginia. The Weather Bureau forecast cold and more rain for Eastern Tennessee, where TVA installations have held the flood waters partly in check.

AT HAZARD, KY., stores, business houses and industries were shut down because of lack of fuel and power. Mud clogged the streets and oozed into some downtown stores. Residents of the town searched for dry firewood to heat their chilly homes.

At least 1,000 persons were forced to flee their homes in and around Williamson and Logan, W. Va. Contaminated water supplies in both communities created a health hazard.

PIKEVILLE, KY., a city of 5,500 isolated for two days, received desperately needed supplies early today from National Guard convoys from London and Ashland. But the city still needed more.

Water was receding in some of the stricken areas but that only eased the situation. More heavy rains in some of the backwoods mountain communities around the Cumberland River kept waters near all time high marks.

Grundy, Va., a town of 2,000, appealed by radio for help Wednesday night and aid was sent this morning from nearby Richmond.

Building Hits $-Million Mark For January

The clatter of carpenter's hammers beat a healthy tattoo in Palm Springs during the month of January as building permit receipts showed $1,180,550 worth of new construction in the city.

The city's building office reported that 100 permits were issued in the first month of the year, as compared with 79 permits for $1,037,800 worth of construction for January, 1956.

A breakdown of the month's construction showed 43 new dwellings, valued at $891,000; 17 additions and alterations to dwellings, $36,300; and four apartments, with 18 units, $112,000.

Other figures included 26 new swimming pools, $85,000; five commercial additions and alterations, $56,250; three trailer additions, $6,000; and two club additions, $4,000.

Turn on Porch Lights Tonight For Polio March

"Turn on your porch light tonight, and give yourself the opportunity to aim a blow at polio."

Mothers from the Palm Springs elementary Parent-Teachers Associations marching on the city tonight, seeking contributions for the March of Dimes, made this appeal today.

They'll visit your house if you'll flick the switch of your porch light, and mark your willingness to add your contribution to the nationwide campaign against infantile paralysis.

Six Trainmen Reach Safety

CHAMA, N. M. AP - The first six of some 60 trainmen stranded on snowbound Cumbres Pass since Saturday arrived here in Army Weasels today and reported one man still on the pass was feared to have pneumonia.

The six rescued men, bearded and tired but in good spirits, said all remaining with two trains stalled in snow along the pass were in no danger and comfortable.

Runaway Truck Hits Car, Kills 1

BAKERSFIELD, AP - A runaway truck rammed into the rear of an automobile on U. S. Highway 99 Wednesday night, killing the driver of the car.

The crash occurred about one-half mile north of Grapevine Station.

Police Posse Makes Grave Search After Hour's Hike, Finds 'No-Body'

(Editor's Note: Desert Sun Photographer-reporter Fred Weigel accompanied the Palm Springs Mounted Police posse up the side of Mt. San Jacinto yesterday, to report what was found by them in the mysteriously marked "grave" in a cave located some two-and-a-half miles west of Palm Canyon Drive at 1,800 feet altitude.)

By FRED C. WEIGEL
To climb to the most inaccessible places of San Jacinto and to watch and take part in the precision movements of the rescue team, can be thrilling to almost every newspaperman, and I am certainly no exception.

At 10 a.m. yesterday, I arrived at the old rodeo grounds where I joined the other members of the posse to hike up the rocky mountain side to investigate a report that there was a grave in a cave "at about 2,000 feet."

ASSEMBLED To leave on the trip were Chief of Police August G. Kettmann, Lt. Robert White, Deputy Coroner Robert Drake, Dr. Clarence Smith—Desert Museum director Jimmy Morton and Stewart Hoppes—who found the cave-grave. Mounted police officers Captain Kenny Paul, John Hollinger, Nick Correll and Larry Paul, and KDES' Ray Corliss and John Norman.

The posse started up the side of the mountain, climbing some 600 feet to reach a rock strewn plateau and then went up and around the many small arroyos in the foothills. The climb took about an hour.

USING THE ONLY trails that were visible in the area, the column of men hiked carefully along the edge of the canyon, in some places gripping the rocks to hold their balance on narrow ledges. Over a mountain top that was at about 2,000 feet, Hoppes and Morton pointed down to the side of a nearby hill indicating the location of the cave. It was about 100 feet up the side of the hill and was formed by a huge leaning slab against a large boulder. The posse went down into the arroyo, and climbed to the ledge in front of the cave.

All the hikers were carrying either tools or equipment. Norman was packing a specially designed tape-recorder and I had photographic equipment.

AT THE CAVE, Chief Kettmann and Lt. White entered first to preserve any "clues" that might be present, and then I was called in to take pictures of the grave and the cave before the excavation was started. Deputy Coroner Robert Drake recorded the arrival time at the cave and listed the names of the men present, and then members of the Mounted Police began to dig. Dr. Smith, who is experienced in excavation and archeology, directed the careful digging. The cave's interior was about 40 feet deep, and 20 feet wide, and the ceiling was a solid rock slab. The grave was inside the cave some 10 feet, and the cross, made of desert wood, stood about 23 inches tall. The interior of the cave was covered with soot, indicating that there had been numerous fires inside or at the entrance.

FOR ALMOST AN hour and a half the posse members dug into the earth inside the grave, uncovering a can which had a bullet hole in it, a cork-tipped cigar butt, and palm frawns. Two broken shovels were in the cave, one of them having five bullet holes in it.

As dirt and sand was thrown out of the grave site, a "terrible stench" filled the air, causing the diggers to wear handkerchief masks. It was termed a "natural odor," caused by campers and wild animals.

At a depth of four to five feet the posse stopped digging, and Dr. Smith and Drake pried around the edges of the grave to see if the ground had been broken and then refilled. In digging the hole, the Mounted Police said that it was easy to tell that the sand had been removed and then refilled, and afforded an easy boundary to the diggers.

LT. WHITE listed the items found in the cave, and maintained constant contact, with police headquarters.

Through a similar method, I was able to keep in touch with The Desert Sun city desk and Don Klotzbuecher, keeping him informed as to how the investigation was progressing.

The posse started back about noon, carrying with it the "clues" that had been found, for laboratory tests. The descent was faster, using a new trail and heading straight for the plateau. At that point, we were met by other members of the Mounted Police, Duke Masterson and Bill Emerson, who brought sandwiches and hot coffee. Chief Kettmann expressed the thanks of the department to the men who made up the posse, and said that this was "another example of the tremendous help the Palm Springs Mounted Police are

Chief Rafael Jim Dies Tuesday At Loma Linda

Funeral arrangements are being prepared today for Rafael Jim, 66-year-old tribal chief of the Caba-Indian Reservation at Indio. Chief Jim died Tuesday following surgery at Loma Linda hospital.

Known throughout the Coachella Valley, Chief Jim lived his entire life on the reservation and was once employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad.

He leaves his two sisters, Mrs. Edith Wellman, of Banning; and Mrs. May Lugo, of Palm Springs. His wife preceded him in death Dec. 23.

Funeral services are being arranged by the FitzHenry Funeral Home at Indio.

Gilbert, De Castro Sisters To Headline Chi Chi Show

Comedian Paul Gilbert, versatile song and dance comic, returns to Palm Springs this week, headlining the new Chi Chi floor show starting Friday night.

The new show, running through Monday, Feb. 11, also co-stars the singing De Castro Sisters, and features the young dancing team of Bev and Jack Palmer.

Natives of the Dominican Republic, the De Castro Sisters are longtime song favorites of the recording industry.

The dancing artistry of Bev and Jack Palmer provoked columnists to tip off talent scouts to the hottest finds since Daves and Julia.

Wednesday Night Club Hears of Police Problems

Chief of Police August G. Kettmann spoke before the Wednesday night club last night at the Jewish Community Center.

Basing his talk on local police problems, he called for the assistance of citizens in supporting their law enforcement agencies.

Mayor Glenn Gauche of Yuba City, visiting in the city, was also a speaker. He told the group about the floods last year in northern California.

Senate Revision Of Middle East Doctrine Seen

WASHINGTON 30—Overwhelming House approval put President Eisenhower's "fight if we must" Middle East doctrine before the Senate today where it faced almost certain revision.

But in the end, informed Senate sources said, a modified version of the President's Middle East resolution still acceptable to the administration will pass the Senate also.

THERE WERE indications that Senate approval will require considerably more time than did House approval—a prospect distasteful to administration spokesmen who have been urging speed.

More criticism of Middle East policies from Senate Democrats was in prospect. And some Democrats already were saying that the controversy over the Middle East plan has jeopardized the administration's general foreign aid program.

The House approved the President's plan Wednesday by a vote of 355 to 61 with 188 Democrats and 167 Republicans voting for it and 35 Democrats plus 26 Republicans voting against it.

AS APPROVED by the House, the resolution would give the President authority to use U.S. military forces, if necessary, to halt overt Communist aggression in the Middle East. It also would authorize the spending of $200 million in previously appropriated funds in the area for economic and military aid.

The aid provisions of the resolution have provoked much of the opposition in the combined Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations Committees which have been considering the proposal. Some influential Senate Democrats have said they will try to defer action on the aid provisions and approve only the troop authorization for the present.

That move seemed likely to fail. But it appeared probable that the two Senate committees will re-write the resolution to put a time limit on the authority it confers, let Congress terminate the authority by its own action and require prior notification to Congress of proposed aid spending.

'No One Wants' 6-Time Married Blonde 'Bigamist'

DAYTON, Ohio 29—Mrs. Cynthia Corraditti, a 23-year-old pregnant blonde, who says "no one seems to want me" was due to be returned to Richmond, Ind., today to face bigamy charges for the latest of her seven marriages.

The attractive woman, who began her marrying career at 13 made her seventh trip to the altar at Richmond Jan. 14, where she and Ray Morris, 22, both swore it was their first marriage, police said.

DETECTIVE SGT. J. H. Pickard said Mrs. Corraditti signed a statement Wednesday admitting she had taken part in a bigamist marriage in Richmond.

Also due here was the woman's mother, Mrs. Evelyn Boyd, San Diego, who called Wednesday night to say she wanted to help her daughter.

Another call was received from W. M. Viles, Oklahoma City, who said he was her father but was "without funds and will be unable to be there."

WHEN TOLD SHE would have to spend one more night in the Dayton jail, Mrs. Corraditti rubbed her back and exclaimed "Oh, no," complaining of the steel bunks and lack of mattresses.

She was arrested Tuesday following a dispute between husband No. 6, Eugene Fultz, 24, and Morris, when Fultz returned to his trailer home unexpectedly from college to find Mrs. Corraditti and Morris there. The three decided to let police work out the marriage mixup.

Authorities said Mrs. Corraditti obtained only four divorces and that her still legal marriage was to Benny Corraditti, 27, in Fokston, Ga., in 1953. Her latest two are bigamist marriages, they said.

Plans Progress For 6th Annual Italian Dinner

Plans are progressing for the sixth annual Italian Dinner of St. Louis Parish in Cathedral City on Wednesday, Feb. 6. Father Joseph Leissler reported this week.

The seven course dinner will be served from 4:30 to 8 p. m., in the parish hall, Glenn and B Street.

A complete dinner will be served, starting with the traditional Italian appetizers, and following with the main course of spaghetti and meat balls with sauce a La Torinese, and real parmesan cheese added to taste.

A 1,000-gallon household septic tank usually will need to be cleaned every five to eight years.

made at Pensacola, Fla., by Navy Ens. Harold J. Hicks, Jr., son of Harold Hicks of 395 Camino Norte. In addition to solo flights, he is receiving training in communications, navigation, engineering, athletics, aerology and civil air regulations at the Saulty Field Naval Auxiliary Air Station.

Hearings Cause Confusion, City Clerk Reports

Three hearings, all scheduled for the month of February and all involving the California Water and Telephone company, yesterday drew queries of wonderment from desert area residents.

At the same time City Clerk Louise McCann announced that confusion exists about the Public Utilities Commission's three hearings for the same day, Feb. 8, with none of these having anything to do with the telephone situation.

In order to make it more understandable, the hearing scheduled for Feb. 8 involving the California Water and Telephone Company is an investigation by a special Assembly interim committee, which because of the number of complaints sent to them has decided to look into the local trouble.

On the same day, the California Public Utilities Commission has scheduled three hearings on separate matters, not involving telephone service or rates.

On Feb. 20, before the PUC in Los Angeles, a hearing will be held on the application of the California Water and Telephone company for an advertising rate increase.

And on the following day, Feb. 21, the PUC will hear the continuation of the present hearing on the telephone service in the Palm Springs, Desert Hot Springs, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert areas.

Cathedral City

By JEAN PATANE
Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Mercer
(Robert Mercer Chemical Co.)
Monday morning for their home in

Stockton. The Mercers were visiting with Mrs. Mercer's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Smithies of Alameda, who are spending their tenth winter season at Desert Lodge.

Among the other guests at Desert Lodge are Mr. and Mrs. Clement Rumpas, of Chehalis, Wash. here for several months enjoying their first winter in the desert. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Hursh and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Comstock, of Santa Rosa; and for their fifth winter season in Cathedral City, Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Lepsker, here from Brookdale and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell of Yakima, Wash.

Arriving today are Mr. and Mrs. E. Berlin and Mrs. Engstrom of Seattle, who plan to stay a month, and Mabel and Beatrice Barnard, who have spent many winters at the Wolseley's Desert Lodge, and will be here for the remainder of the season.

Larry and Mary Colwell, of O. K. Rubber Welders, spent last weekend visiting their two daughters and families, the William Kelleys in Whittier and the Thomas Rouses in La Puente.

Alice Walker's Trail-O-Rama Show last week originated at Sunny Cove Trailer Park.

Recent guests at the Berton Hills home of the Virgil Elmore were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sanford and their daughter, Mrs. Gentry of Los Angeles.

Former Cathedral City resident, Mrs. A. J. Lacey, who now makes her home in Riverside, is visiting this week at the home of Mrs. Emma Hammill.

Young Richard Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Wood, was guest of honor at the party celebrating his sixth birthday. In keeping with the Western theme of the occasion, the birthday cake was topped with a corral circling bucking broncho. Among his classmates and friends helping to celebrate the event were Darlene Schmidt, Diane Simerly, Janet Harris, Bradley Allen, Cookie Johnson, the Plettner twins, Linda and Diane, and Mark and Ray Lions of Palm Springs.

Bill Dossey, in the Navy aboard the USS Boxer, who has been in Japan, Hongkong, and Hawaii for the last six months, was scheduled to dock in San Diego Jan. 30. While on a 30 day leave he will visit in Cathedral City as the guest of Bill Thompson, and will then go on to San Francisco to spend the rest of the time with his mother.

Ronald Patrick, nephew of Mrs. Carl Emerson, and a friend were guests at the Emerson home over the weekend. On Sunday they took young Johnny Emerson up to Thomas Mountain to see the snow.

Houseguests at the home of Mrs. Lena Knowlton are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bulnar, en route from their home in Six Lakes, Mich., to visit their grandchildren, Dennis and Linda Bulnar, in Oxnard. Also visiting Mrs. Knowlton is her cousin, Gertrude Kruger of Phoenix, Ariz.

Girl Born Jan. 28 To Tuchfarbers

Weighing only five pounds six ounces, Peggy Sue Tuchfarber made her entrance into this world at 3:15 a.m., Monday, Jan. 16, at Desert Hospital. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold H. Tuchfarber of Corregidor Drive, and awaiting her arrival home are Mel Allen, seven, and five-year-old Ruth Lynn.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Tuchfarber of Edgemont, near Riverside, and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Kowitz of Haldon, Okla., who are visiting at the Tuchfarber home.

40 Attend Lions Club Meeting, Three Inducted

More than forty members and friends attended the dinner meeting of the Cathedral City Lions Clubs, held at the Town Hall last Thursday night.

In the absence of Fred Woolpart of Indio, who was unable to attend, Paul Clark inducted the following new members, Bill Hoppe, owner of Hoppe's Nursery; Chuck Linn, postmaster of Cathedral City; and Art Hendershot, manager of Deluxe Trailer Park.

Chet Kinnaman, well known dog trainer, presented "Sandy," two year old white German Shepherd featured in the "Little Orphan Annie" TV series, in an interesting exhibition. Chet Mathison, Lions members, is now training three white Shepherds as doubles for "Sandy."

Members were reminded that the joint meeting of Coachella, Idyllwild and Cathedral City Lions Clubs will be held Tuesday evening, Feb. 5, at the Elks Hall in Indio. Members planning on attending are asked to meet in front of Woody's Texaco Station at 6:30 p.m.

Traveling Secretary

COLOMA, Mich. — Whenever secretary Jackie Stainbrook gets an important message for her boss, she must take a boat ride to deliver it to him. Her boss, Curtis Coates, a real estate man, has his "office" on a dredge that he uses to deepen channels and create islands in Paw Paw Lake and spends most of his time there.

MISS JANICE DOWN, student at Santa Barbara College, branch of the University of California, is spending the mid-semester vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Down, who recently purchased "The Shoe Mart."

Girl Born Jan. 26 To Chuck Martins

Mr. and Mrs. "Chuck" Martin welcomed their first baby, an eight pound eight ounce girl, Jean Marie, at the Desert Hospital Saturday morning, Jan. 26, at 9:54 a.m. Both parents are graduates of Palm Springs High School, year 1955, and he also attended Cathedral City School. He is now with the California Water and Telephone Company.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Martin, Sr., of Cathedral City, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smashey of Cathedral City and Florida. Mrs. Martin and baby are now at their home on E Street.

New Officers Named By CC Community Church

Members of the Cathedral City Community Church met in the church hall for the annual election of officers.

Following the traditional potluck dinner, a discussion was held concerning progress and future plans, and members of the congregation were given an opportunity to suggest ways of improving their church.

The following were elected to the board of Elders: Edward Der- ing, Russell Hewitson, Bert Wade, James Simerly, Alvin Lake and Miller, and the nominating committee includes Norman Wickland, Paul Clark, Mrs. DON Veitch, George Miller, Mrs. Perry Williams, Bill Kennedy and Russell Hewitson.

The Rev. James W. Arnold, pastor, reported that at the meeting of Riverside Presbytery at El Centro last week, Edward Dering was elected to be an Elder Commissioner to attend the general assembly in Omaha, Neb. in May.

Schwartz Joins Wilson Appliance

William Schwartz, of Palm Springs, is now special Westinghouse sales representative with California Electric Power Company.

Prior to moving to the desert three and a half years ago, he was Westinghouse representative in Riverside for more than five years.

Junior Women Report 'Success'

Mrs. Harold Bentley, speaking for the Junior Woman's Club of Cathedral City, today thanked all those who contributed to the success of the Rummage Sale held last Friday and Saturday.

The next meeting of the Club will be held Tuesday night, Feb. 5. The place has not been definitely set and will be announced later.

Cathedral City Youth Center Plans Election

Cathedral City Youth Center, Inc., will hold its annual election of trustees at 8 p.m. Monday, Feb. 11, at the Town Hall.

Mrs. John Gallorani, president, said that the present trustees are Ray Abbey, Mrs. Joseph M. Bucino, Paul W. Clark, Robert E. Irvine, Mrs. E. M. Jorgensen, Carl Mayfield and herself. Two others formerly on the board have moved away, so that a total of nine are to be elected.

At a recent meeting of the board the hope was expressed that the parents of teen-agers would take a more active part in the activities of the group. All interested residents of the area are invited to attend the annual meeting whether or not they are at present members of the organization.

CC Chamber To Meet Feb. 5

The Cathedral City Chamber of Commerce will hold its next meeting at 7:30 p. m., Tuesday, Feb. 5, at the Library.

On the agenda for discussion is the rerouting and widening of Hwy 111.

Everyone is invited to submit their opinion.

DAVID DANIEL DUPREE, 20, escaped with only minor injuries even though his car pictured above had a series of collisions before coming to rest under the sign of the Farm House restaurant Sunday night. After losing control of his car, it hit a stop sign, smashed into a parked car, careened into a telephone pole, and then was stopped between the power-pole and a big steel post holding the restaurant sign. The youth was cited by the California Highway Patrol for speeding and driving without due caution. (Desert Sun Photo)

'Corned' Rattlesnake

GARNETT, Kan. — Eighty-five-year-old Mrs. Laura J. Roberts used a stalk of corn with an ear of corn attached to beat to death a rattlesnake when it attacked the family collie dog in the Roberts garden.

Cathedral City Fire Board Discusses Cost of Hydrants

Board of Commissioners of the Cathedral City Fire Protection District held its annual meeting, with all present, L. C. Lewis, president; Paul Clark, Emil Greener, W. R. Hillery and Vernon Krings. Routine bills for fire hydrant rental, supplies for volunteer fire department and standby truck were approved, and, in addition, a bonus payment of $304 was awarded the members of the volunteer fire department for attendance at practice meetings.

It was pointed out that these volunteers give of their time and energy, many times on night calls, for what is only a nominal compensation.

The board will contact the Palm Springs Water Company, new owner of the Cathedral City Water Company, asking for a re-examination of the $2 per month per unit paid for the fire hydrant rental, and will discuss with Truman Holland, in charge of County Fire equipment under State Forestry supervision, the advisability of purchasing a Civil Defense fire truck.

A budget of $1,000 was declared for the next tax year which means a tax rate of approximately five cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

Cordes Attends Home Showing

Robert J. Cordes of Cordes Floor Coverings, spent four days last week in Chicago where he attended a dealers' meeting and the Home Builders Show. Claude and Edna Cobb and Dolores Cordes drove him into Los Angeles where he flew by United Airlines to Chicago.

LIBRARY NOTES

By LYLE SMITH

It is murder mystery weather. The Library shelves offer sure proof. Happy people have been heading homeward to their fire-sides with one, or five, or seven thrillers in their arms, leaving great gaps on the shelves.

It's a good time to mention the new ones.

The one I read last night is THE MAN IN THE NET by Patrick Quentin. It is unusually exciting, with an unusual combination: the accused hero—succeeded by five sketchy but believable children.

THERE IS THE almost-science-fiction THE POWER by Frank Robinson, a really terrifying thriller, about which the author said, "In all honesty, there were times when I would be working on the book late at night and would have to give it up—I was scaring myself."

And the altogether delightful GUEST IN THE HOUSE by Philip MacDonald, the hero of which has a sports car so gorgeous that even we in Palm Springs sigh and yearn, and the locals of the story is a familiar California coast resort.

Also brand new is the Manning Coles spy story BIRDWATCHER'S QUARRY, full of wonderful gore and wonderful, impossible intelligence agents: Tommy Hambleton, Campbell and Forgan.

IF YOU ARE charmed with English place names and English scenes, E. C. R. Lorac's new SHEPHERD'S CROOK is set in a spot extremely remote and forbidding, an ancient stone farmhouse in the hilly sheep country. Chief Inspector MacDonald was looking for a farm to buy, thus his presence.

The new Agatha Christie has Hercule Poirot in yet another beautiful English home, where a playful game of murder turns into the real thing. DEAD MAN'S FOLLY is another expert adventure in crime, with clues abounding for the wary reader.

MAN ON A ROPE by George Harmon Coxe is set in British Guiana, and is a tense and complex story of diamonds, money, and a man's attempt to clear himself of circumstantial evidence. It is filled with tropical color and excitement.

WILLIAM ARD has a new mystery, CRY SCANDAL, which is in his familiar tough-guy style, and is filled with people that I for one would rather not know personally, but that achieve a certain interest.

Backed by careful research UN-APPOINTED ROUNDS by Doris Miles Disney takes the reader behind the scenes into the fascinating world of the detectives who protect our mails.

A novel of characterization, as well as a murder-mystery is ONE-WAY TICKET by Bert and Dolores Hitchens. It has a careful and interesting railway background, and takes place in Los Angeles.

A COMPLETELY different world is in TWO-THIRDS OF A GHOST. This latest Helen McCloy is a caricature of authors, publishers, critics and agents. It is far from being a thriller, but its ingenious murder will while away a pleasant evening.

Any one of these will yield happy hours, whether the sun shines or not.

But don't start THE POWER when safely put away in book-closet at night.

Residents Asked 'Have Porches Lighted Tonight'

Mrs. Ed Wills, and Mrs. George Rodman, chairman and co-chairman of the PTA sponsored Mother's March on Polio for the Cathedral City area, voice a final appeal for the cooperation of all residents in response to the Mother's March tonight.

"Welcome the Mothers with a light on your porch, a 'Light for the Fight on Polio', they said. The sound trucks aiding the drive are being furnished by Charles Valentino and Russell Mesick.

Robert Cordes, chairman of the Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage and Palm Desert areas, reports the collections to date are far below the $2,000 quota for the area, and hopes the Mother's March will raise the amount to that established last year.

Dr. Quinn Opens Offices in CC

Dr. E. M. Quinn of Vallejo and San Francisco, announced the opening of his new office last week, at 68527 Broadway in Cathedral City.

Dr. Quinn has been in general practice for more than 25 years and is a graduate of Stanford University Medical School.

Specializing in asthma and arthritis, he maintained offices in Desert Hot Springs in 1953 and '54. He is a member of the county, state and American Medical Association and has done special research work on asthma and arthritis in New York City through Cornell affiliations.

Dr. and Mrs. Quinn plan to make their home permanently in Cathedral City.

According to legend, Dr. Richard Shuckburgh, a British army surgeon, wrote "Yankee Doodle" while seated on the well curb at the rear of Fort Crailo, an old brick house believed to have been built in 1705 in Rensselaer, N.Y.

Capacity Crowd Attends 5 C's Program and Supper

The Memorial Hall of the Cathedral City Community Church was filled to near capacity when the members of the 5 C's Club gathered for a potluck supper followed by an evening of musical and cultural entertainment.

W. R. Hewitson, master of ceremonies, presented the following artists in vocal and instrumental numbers: Mrs. Alberta Young who sang "The Old Refrain," "L'Amour Toujours L'Amour" and "Ciribiribim," Mrs. Hitchcock played on the violin, "Spanish Serenade," "Berceuse," "Sara-bande" and "Frasquita," vocal numbers by Ray Hancock were "Oh Sweet Mystery of Life," "One Alone," "The Sunshine of Your Smile" and "Song of Songs," and Alvin Lake sang "My Task."

Lending contrast to the musical numbers Warner Moon spoke on "Personal Experiences," and Edward Dering presented two monologues.

Highlight of the program was the pantomime artistry of Stan Little and Allen O'Day. Hancock closed the program with the hymn, "I'd Rather Have Jesus."

Mrs. Don Veitch, on behalf of the 5 C's Club, extended thanks to those on the program.

James Simerly gave the Devotional and the pastor, Rev. James Arnold, gave the Benediction.

Playhouse Season Tickets Are Available in Area

Margaret Davidson announces that Playhouse tickets at season rates, through the courtesy of The Desert Art Center, may be procured at the Cathedral Pharmacy and the Cathedral Beauty Shop, as well as Sky Ridge and Deluxe Trailer Parks, where theater parties are enthusiastically planned each week.

In the Palm Desert and Rancho Mirage area, tickets are at the real estate office of Edith Eddy Ward in the Center in Palm Desert. Theatre parties are being arranged each week at Sun and Shadow, Twin Palms Lodge, Palm Desert Adobe and White Sun Guest Ranch.

Marie Ropp, Desert Hot Springs realtor, and chairman for ticket sales in that area, reports a keen interest in the project.

Mrs. James Wolseth and Mrs. Gladys Follansbee, chairman and co-chairman of the Playhouse Ticket Committee of the Desert Art Center, assisted by Mrs. Ella Johnson, report gratifying progress in Palm Springs.

Area Business Group to Meet

The Cathedral City Area Business Association will hold its next luncheon meeting Wednesday, Feb. 6, at Cisco's Restaurant on Highway 111 in the Tramview area. Meetings are held the first and third Wednesdays of each month.

NEWPORT, R. I. — Historic Fort Adams, which never has been fired on during its 131 years, soon will be razed by the Navy.

You'll learn on a turn—
It's low for MORE than looks alone

As you can plainly see, the gorgeous new 1957 Buicks are low—low to match the sleek silhouette of their modern sports-car styling—Lower than any Buick in history—by as much as nearly four inches—and, mind you, with more interior room and without sacrificing an inch in road clearance.

But you'll soon learn that this sleek new lowness does more than add beauty to the Buick look. It brings new greatness to the Buick ride.

First time you twist 'round a corner or snake into an "S" curve, you'll learn how this new Buick's new lowness tames the turns. How it snugs the car to the road. How it cuts down the sidesway. How it gives you the safe-and-sure-footed steadiness of four wheels always on the road.

That's because these sweet-handling, sweet-riding beauties give you the lowest center of gravity in Buick annals—born of a brilliantly engineered new chassis that "nests" your ride low and steady as you go.

But the core of this new Buick's story is the action you get.

You get action that stems from the instant response of an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* so able and obedient and full-range in "Drive," even without a switch of the pitch, that the need for "Low" is virtually eliminated.

And it's action that's sparked by a brilliant new V8 engine of 364-cubic-inch capacity, of record-high horsepower and compression, and of almost complete freedom from vibration.

Safety News
Only Buick has the Safety-Minder+—a simple device that's a great boon to your safety. You merely press the miles-per-hour you want. When you reach that pace, a warning buzzer sounds. Drop below that pace and the buzzer stops.

Safety Reminder
If you miss your turn-off on a highway, don't jam on your brakes. Just go on to the next exit. Pass it along.

So come in to see and sample all that's new in these newest Buicks yet—all that's new in styling—new in ride and handling—new in power and performance—new in roominess, safety, luxury and fun. Do that—before another sun sets!

Editor's Corner

ANOTHER STEP TOWARD
CENTRALIZED GOVERNMENT

No one can deny that there is a great need for increased school facilities in this country. Neither can anyone dispute the fact that needs are going to be even greater in the next four years. The figures on increasing school population make it all perfectly clear.

President Eisenhower's proposal that the Federal Government appropriate $2,200,000,000 for school aid to the states during the next four years poses only one question, therefore: Who should provide the money?

Since the states have not kept up with school facilities to meet increasing enrollment, it is assumed that they are unable to do so. The reason is pretty obvious; the people are being taxed too heavily — particularly by the Federal Government.

It is going to be hard for our Congressmen and Senators to stand up and argue against this program urged by the President. Everyone recognizes the value of good schools to the nation and not many of the national legislators are going to want to vote against needed schools. They are given a poor choice. It is too bad that the school problem has been neglected until this emergency was permitted to arise.

States Should Provide Schools

The proposed school aid program is another step toward centralization of power in the Federal Government. Providing proper school facilities should be a basic right reserved for the states. Control of schools is bound to come in

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Box Score on Power Policy

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Are you all mixed up about the hydro-electrical power policies of President Eisenhower? Me, too. My box score, subject to change without notice, reads something like this:

Is Eisenhower II still backing the "partnership policy" between private-local enterprise and the Federal Government?

1. Yes, indeed "Our soil, water, mineral, forest, fish and wildlife resources . . . must not be the concern of the Federal Government alone. State and local entities and private enterprise must be encouraged to participate in such projects." — President Eisenhower 1-10-57.

2. No, indeed: Interior Secretary Fred Seaton said he would ask the Federal Power Commission to hold up the application of the Pacific Northwest Power Company to build a dam in the (Snake River) area. Seaton said an Interior Department study "showed the possibility for a higher (Federal-built) dam than the (private enterprise) applicants asked for." —United Press 1-27-57

IS EISENHOWER II going to stick to his guns and give battle to inflation by refusing to sink more Federal funds in dams for the Pacific Northwest and the Missouri Valley Southwest?

1. Maybe, yes. "We see no reason to inflict the whole burden of financing these (Northwest and Southwest) projects on the Federal Government whenever and wherever non-Federal interests are willing to assume a share." —Secretary Seaton at Salt Lake City 11-16-56.

2. Maybe, no. Certain Republican political defeats in the West have prompted officials to take "a long, hard look" at the Eisenhower administration's power and natural resources policies "at the Vice Presidential and Cabinet level." —Associated Press 11-6-56.

IS EISENHOWER II going to push through at least one example of "partnership" to prove that it will work?

1. Now you see it "Administration to Keep Partnership Policy on Electric Power, Says Seaton." —Headlines, Washington Post 11-17-56.

2. Now you don't "White House Reported Ready to Back Federal Dams at Two Sites Now Earmarked for Private Development." —Headlines, Wall Street Journal 12-28-56.

IS THE NEW Eisenhower Administration moving toward a power policy very similar to that of the New Deal?

1. Hope so "It was the adoption of a part of the New Deal. The President has adopted a modernization program, and he has announced his purpose of modernizing the Republican party." —Senator O'Mahoney (D) 1-14-57.

2. Hope not "I hope it will never be modernized to the point of State Socialism." —Senator Watkins (R) 1-14-57.

DO THE PRESIDENT and his advisers have a clear, definite concept of "partnership" and a clear, definite awareness of what its failure could bring about?

1. Of course they do "And until such a partnership is established on a proper and logical basis of sharing authority, responsibility and costs, our country will never have both the fully productive use of water that it so obviously needs and protection against disastrous floods. If we fail in establishing and sustaining this partnership, all the many tasks that need to be done in America could be accomplished some form or another when the states become dependent upon Federal aid. The present segregation problem makes this all the more apparent.

With its huge receipts from Income and Social Security taxes which the Federal Government takes right out of the workers' pay envelopes, there is not much taxing capacity left to the states. It would be a much more wholesome situation if Federal taxes were reduced enough so the states could afford to provide their own school facilities.

Danger Point Near

Complete political control of any government can easily be brought about through control of the incomes of its citizens. That hasn't happened to us yet in this country — but we are nearing the danger point. The people—and the state governments—are being made more and more dependent on their Federal Government for all kinds of services; for highways, pensions, municipal improvements, veterans' aid and disability benefits, subsidies to farmers and scores of other Federally-financed programs.

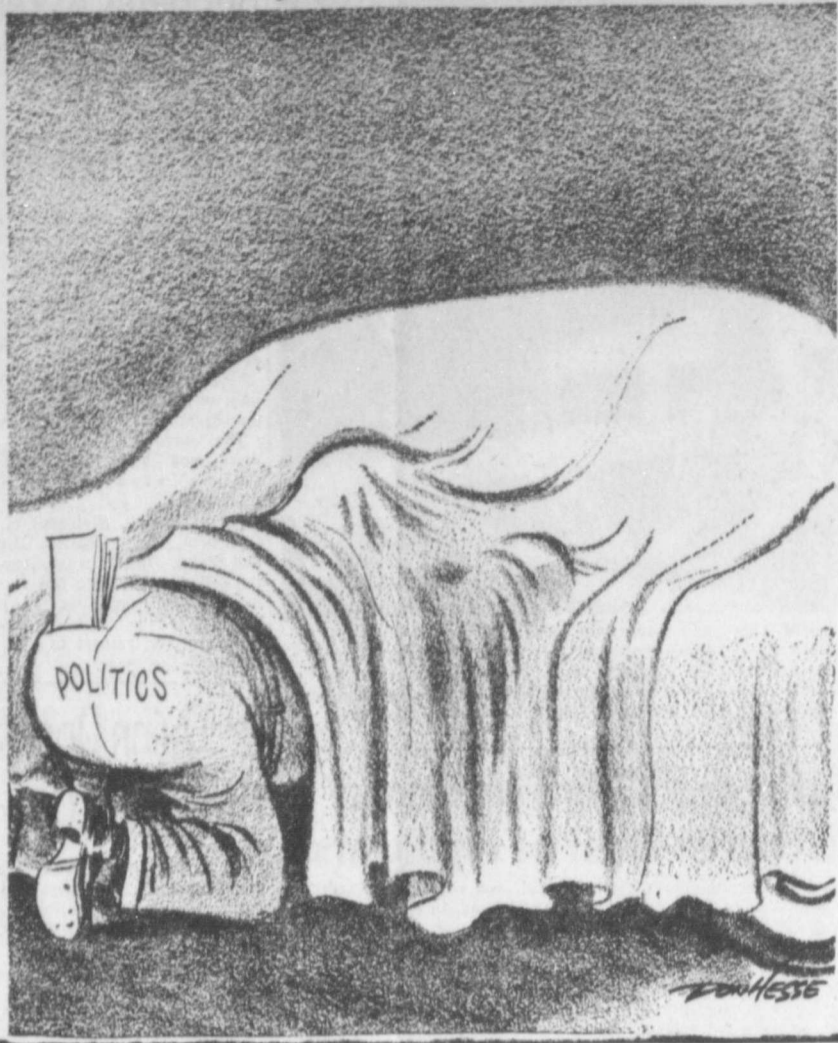

And so those who fear this growing centralization of power in Washington may be forced to take another bitter pill—to swallow the proposed school aid program because it is too late to provide an alternative.

It is very true, as President Eisenhower stated, that "collectively, the educational equipment of the whole population contributes to our national character . . . our cultural attainments." But it is unfortunate that we must attain these ends through more dependency upon our national government.

benefit of all boys regardless of race, creed or religious belief. Factual statistics show that none of our major criminals had the benefit of Scouting in their youth. Practically all of our universities and colleges have departments for the creation of better cattle, swine and poultry, giving special emphasis to each and spending millions of dollars in their propagation . . . but it remains for the home, personal leadership and Scouting, coupled with religious affiliation . . . to make better boys and better men.

Busy On the 1960 Model

THIS SIDE of The Sun
By Phat

Whenever I see a buzzing bee,
I know that it's gonna be,
Woe to me.
That either she'll come
And sit on me,
Or I'll get rattled
And sit on she.

I seem to have an affinity for bothersome insects. Other people can merely raise an eyebrow at a wasp, bee, hornet or similar insect and they flap their wings and depart. Me, they look at, back up and sit down.

BUT THERE WAS a switch to the familiar theme the other day. Coming into Palm Springs the other morning after a weekend at the beach, I was on a bus. There, also, was a bee. Where it got on to free-load a ride I don't know. But, anyway, it got on the bus. It fluttered backward each time the bus took off. But didn't flutter forward when the bus stopped, as it should by the laws of motion.

Soon it got back to my seat. Ignored every change to get off and fly back to its hive.

PROBABLY figured what was the use of going back to her honey. Probably just an old drone, anyway.

To make a long tale short (and I wish it had been so) soon I missed the bee. Figured that it had probably flown out of the bus some where along the line.

Relaxed, I sat back. Slid across the seat to the window. And there was the bee. On the seat. So don't think I am too polite because I stand as you enter the room.

I LIKE TYPOGRAPHICAL errors—when they don't happen in something I wrote. But some of them are so right. Give a better touch to the article the reporter wrote than he intended.

For instance, there was one in The Sun Tuesday that I really liked.

The story detailed the facts of talking about for dogs. The reporter wrote that it would be held on the "parking lot" of the Polo Grounds.

And it came out in print, the "barking lot."

How true.

TOMORROW is the first of February. It's going to be easy to figure out the dates of the month and of the March, that follows. That was called to my attention yesterday by one of the girls in the office who said:

"Dig that crazy calendar!"

When asked why, she said it was all wrong.

"It's got the dates of February and March on the same day. Like February 1 and March 1 both on a Friday. Something's out of line."

Patient explanation enlightened her to February's 28-day span and she had another bright idea.

Same pay for 28 days as for 31. Goodie.

Yeah, but the same rent for 28 days as for 31, says I.

Just a big dispenser of gloom, that's me.

A closed mouth gathers no feet, according to a quip I just cribbed from the Kansas State Collegian.

INEZ ROBB:

Refugees Retain Sense of Humor

EISENSTADT, Austria—Nineteen times out of a hundred, the Hungarian refugee arrives in Austria with the clothes he stands in and his sense of humor.

One of the favorite stories going the rounds of the refugee camps at the moment concerns a little Hungarian boy who stands at a street crossing in Budapest. He is chewing on a big hunk of bread, and eyeing him hungrily from the turret of their tank are four Russian soldiers.

The child chews stolidly on his bread until two adult Hungarians pass him, and he asks them to give the rest of the bread to the Russians.

"But why don't you give it to them yourself?" the adults ask.

AND THE LITTLE boy replies, "Oh, well, you know how scared they are of children."

I met two such children at Eisenstadt, a large collection center in Eastern Austria where refugees are sent from such primary border points as Andau.

The first, a 13-year-old, fled Hungary because he was accused, and rightly, of tossing a bottle of flaming gasoline at a tank, and the secret police were on his trail.

The second, a sturdy, self-reliant 10-year-old, had crossed the border three nights before with his father.

"Weren't you afraid?" I asked him.

HE SHRUGGED eloquently and said, "Not of Russians."

So I turned to a schoolteacher in the group. She was a frail girl of 24, weighing a scant 90 pounds, who had crossed the border only two nights before with her husband, a member of the provincial district workers' council whom the secret police once more are hounding.

Why, I asked her, had the Russian school system with its harsh and continuous propaganda, forced down Hungarian throats, had so little impact on the younger generation?

It was quite simple, explained the school teacher, Anna Bocsi, who has an uncle in the United States.

"We managed to be married in church," Josef said proudly. "But because of political pressure in our own village, we had to go to another village to be married and keep the church part secret."

And if only he and Anna can get to the United States, Josef added, he will do any kind of honest work no matter how hard, to earn a living.

EARL WILSON:

Flynn Could Use $10,000

NEW YORK—I was sort of glad seeing Errol Flynn win $10,000 the other night on "The Big Surprise" TV show because . . . well . . .

"I was so broke for four years," declared Flynn—telling for the first time how he got out of hock and settled an $850,000 income tax claim—that I overtopped shamelessly to pretend I wasn't.

"I tossed $20 bills around, but actually I couldn't afford to buy Pat a new dress," he confessed further. "But she looked wonderful to me all the time—I like blue jeans anyway."

Flynn frankly revealed all about his "poverty period"—which ended just a few months ago—when the name of Joe Louis came up.

"Three years ago you owed more than he did!" spoke up a friend.

"YOU JUST HAVE to pay it up!" Flynn said. "The only reason I wasn't put in jail—"

Flynn charged that "a friend," who was in charge of his finances, "would take a $30,000 check I gave him to pay my taxes, and apply it to his taxes."

The "friend" died leaving a verbal message for Flynn. It said "Tell Errol I'm sorry."

"Then I got a tax bill for $850,000! Even with my meager knowledge of accounting, I knew this wasn't just a bad day at the races."

"They considered fraud charges against me—fraud means jail. Then they saw my story was true, for my friend had also handled several other much bigger wheels the same way."

"SO I WORKED for the last two years paying off bills I didn't even know I owed."

"I stayed out of the country, for every penny I made would have been attached. I have an ex-wife, Lili Damita, who hit me about this time. Expensive little lady, Lili, but I don't mind."

Flynn blew cigaret smoke across the suite.

"I think it amounted to $240,000. She's now off my neck forever. I think I've paid her about $1,740,000 all together. I paid her off when I made 'Istanbul.' Personally, I made $5 out of it."

"But I'm true blue Harold with the income tax boys now."

"I READ SOMEWHERE that I had a castle in Spain. I had a crummy little two-room joint."

"All of a sudden one day I got a cashier's check for $32,000. A tax refund of some kind."

"I said to Pat, 'I want you to go out and spend at least $5,000 on dresses.'"

"She said, 'You've been drinking.'"

"You're right, I have," he said—and explained.

"And what a silly girl. She bought a couple of dresses and then went to a jewelry shop and bought me a antique snuff box. And here was a chance to grab me when I was mellow!"

Come to think of it, I wonder if

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Daphne Fairbanks Coming Out

HOLLYWOOD — Daphne Fairbanks, 16-year-old daughter of Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., will have her "coming out" party in London this year. Fairbanks says he will invite the British upper crust naturally—also "a large slice of socially acceptable film stars."

And WHAT, pray tell, are "socially acceptable film stars?" Come off it, Sir Doug.

Speaking of royalty, Princess Grace has been given Prince Rainier wife's tips on the American way of life . . . David Selznick, on an all-out big-name kick for "A Farewell to Arms," signed Charles Boyer to play the priest role. Cast also includes Rock Hudson, Jennifer Jones and Vittorio De Sica.

WALTER WINCHELL denies he got his face lifted. Claims the rejuvenation is strictly from California sunshine . . . Girl-to-Girl Talk at Ciro's: "Sweetie, how lovely you look tonight! You must have gone to a lot of trouble."

Ingrid Bergman's one mistake, according to the fans who've written to me, was saying she had no regrets . . . Leslie Nielsen, the late Jean Hersholt's nephew, is begging M-G-M to take him out of "Tip on a Dead Jockey" and let him play the role of a deadpan sailor in "Don't Go Near the Water." I pressed Nielsen on the subject.

He said, "My dad used to belt me if I even LOOKED like I was thinking of answering him back—so I learned how to deadpan!"

Joan Collins' father couldn't get in to see her working in "The Wayward Bus" at 20th but a process-server managed to sneak by the gatekeeper and serve a legal notice on the doll.

Those combination gogles—bearing aids they're advertising aren't so new. The plot of "College Swing" way back in the '30's, had Jerry Colonna inventing just such a gadget and giving it to Gracie Allen so that she could tune in an accomplice for the answers in a college examination.

JUDY BAMBER, the 19-year-old who flipped the GIs in Korea over the Christmas holidays, was signed by American-International for a starring stint in "Dragstrip Girl," her first movie . . . Tess and Bill Bendix will live the Life of Riley in Europe this summer.

Visiting a certain movie queen on her set, I asked how things were going with her. She snorted. "Well, we're supposed to be making a comedy but I haven't heard a single laugh from the crew all day!" . . . Quote from Rossano Brazzi: "When I make 'The Barefoot Contessa' with Ava Gardner I have to work very hard. She does not excite me. I think she is too cold. But I have to make people believe I love her on the screen. It is very difficult for me."

Lidia Brazzi, Rossano's better-half, speaking: "Why should I be jealous of the girls Rossano woos on the sets? He just sells love. I wouldn't be jealous of potatoes if he sold them for a living!"

TV TOPICS — The Emmy Awards will be announced March 6. I picked the Oscar nominees. Today I'd like to pick the Emmy winners! Following the bouncing ball . . . Best shows: "I Love Lucy," "Playhouse 90," "Air Power," "Twenty-One" . . . Best actors: Brod Crawford in "Highway Patrol," Jack Palance and Ed Wynn in "Requiem for a Heavyweight" . . . Best comic: Phil Silvers . . . Best male personality: Hal March . . . Best news commentator: Walter Cronkite . . . Best actresses: Jane Wyman in "Jane Wyman Theatre" and Jayne Meadows in "Drop of a Hat" in "Studio One," Evelyn Hude in "Elaine" . . . Best comedienne: Lucille Ball . . . Best female personality: Dinah Shore . . . Honorable mentions: Lawrence Welk, Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Matinee Theatre."

First Night Dinner at Biltmore

The hardy First Nighters who braved Palm Springs' most unusual weather last Tuesday night were rewarded with a superb dinner served in the beautiful Mural Room of the Biltmore Hotel: Mrs. E. Stewart Williams, assisted by Mrs. Howard McKay and Mrs. Burnham Bigelow, welcomed guests on arrival. Mrs. John F. Luccarelli, Playhouse Guild president, helped with table reservations.

Sam Levine, Biltmore owner, stated that diners were to be served extra portions, since the crowd was not as large as had been anticipated, due to the inclement weather. The special menu prepared for the pre-theater group was built around sliced fillet mignon sauteed in mushroom sauce. A crisp vegetable fritter was an interesting addition to the meal. The cherry cobbler topped with whipped cream repeated the soft shades of pink and rose of the table settings.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Alschuler (he is heading the Desert Museum drive) who are wintering from Chicago in the Frank Bennett home were with the Oscar D. Sterns. Alfred Dreyfus, who commutes to his business in Chicago, was with Mrs. Dreyfus and Mrs. William Eisenman. Among other winter residents were the Milner J. Andersons (prominent attorney) from Oakland. From Pebble Beach, Florida, were Mrs. Phyllis Davies and her daughter, Mrs. Bostaller.

Several First Nighters had just returned from trips. The Earl Hendersons had been in Las Vegas, and Mrs. Polly Booth had been visiting her family in Atlanta and Phoenix.

Edward Everett Horton's arrival created quite a stir of welcome. He is the guest of the John Luccarelli at his Smoke Tree Ranch home, and will open next week in the Ferenc Molnar play, "Arthur." He gave an informal resume of this romantic comedy, and is most enthusiastic over the opportunity of doing it here. He stated that it had been done only once, in Dallas; was funny to read; and had scintillating dialogue, all about a most satisfactory, but imaginary husband, named Arthur.

Due to the popularity of Horton's appearances, the next First Nighter at Deep Well, on Tuesday, February 5, is expected to be very well attended. Reservations may be made by calling the Playhouse Guild office, 6478.

Delegates At Toastmistress Council Meeting

On Saturday the semi-monthly meeting of Council No. 8 of the International Toastmistress Club was held in San Bernardino at Tops Cafe.

Three members of the Palm Springs chapter were able to attend and they were, June Dill, Betty Mitchell, and Margot Morrison who report that the meeting was well attended with members coming from as far away as Las Vegas.

The business meeting was called to order at 10 a.m. followed by the program, the subject of which was "How to make an Effective Speech". The meeting was concluded with luncheon.

Mariners Plan Monday Potluck

The Flagship Mariners of the Community Church will have a potluck dinner at the Church on Monday night, February 4, at 6 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Carlin are in charge of the dinner, and announced that all friends of the Church are invited. It is requested that everyone bring their own table service, but coffee and rolls will be furnished.

The program will present Dr. Frank Warren of Whitworth College and the College Quartet.

Playhouse Fantasy Delights Audience of First Nighters

"Come into the tent of Sourab Kayam and learn of the mystery and romance that is the life backstage at the circus" is the invitation to play-goers who see the delightful fantasy, "Tonight in Samarkand," at the Playhouse this week. This play, written by Jacques Deval, and produced here by Herb Rogers, has just completed a successful run at the Pasadena Playhouse, and starred Sarah Churchill.

Tim O'Connor, as Sourab, the mystic, who loves the tawny-haired tigress woman, both doubts and fears his powers of foretelling the future. Marrian Walters, the magnificent Greek, Madam Nerica, trainer of tigers, is fascinated, but frightened by what she sees in Sourab's crystal ball. The old Arabian legend of Samarkand is revealed as the inevitable fate of all those who become involved in Nerica's life. This pair carry the leads and manage to impart warmth and reality to their roles.

There are many characters who are drawn into this clairvoyant web, spun about the reappearing Theresa, subtly played by Verkina Beck, who has often been seen in local productions under the direction of her husband, radio announcer, Martin Beck. Her deep, rich voice beckons to all those whose lives have been marked for the rendezvous in Samarkand.

John Crawford, who will be remembered for his outstanding artistry in last season's "Picnic" and "The Rainmaker," gives the same vigor to his role of the carefree juggler, Angelo. Playing opposite him is Marjory Stapp, as Guri, who seeks his undivided love. She does an interesting character change in a dream sequence. Beth Williams brings youthful charm to the minor role of Pandora.

Phyllis Flax, who is seldom seen in a glamorous role, is the sophisticated and beautiful sister of the haughty and scheming Paul, as deftly defined by Michael Ferrall. Sidney Breese turns in his usual good characterization as the booking agent for the traveling European circus, who is always concerned with his wine and his 10 per cent. His performance brought many laughs.

James Maloney is a convincing inspector, who is torn between duty and liking for Sourab, the man. Ray Grunwald does a bright bit as Perignolles.

Two frisky little black poodles and two clowns start the action. A standard French poodle adds the inimitable touch that only a smartly clipped French poodle can. The dogs were brought down by Don Cole, a hair-dresser from Riverside, who raises and trains them as a hobby. Incidentally, he is one of the originators of the "poodle cut" for women.

Adding to the illusion of being at the circus is a pre-curtain performance of magic tricks by Babe Mathies, his wife and their two costumed youngsters. Mathies is the manager of the popular Hume's Shop on Palm Canyon.

Michael Ferrall, working with a talented group of players, has created a mood of mystery, beautifully timed, and skillfully sustained by the leading characters. The colorful and imaginative set and clever scene shifting add much to the attractiveness of the play. The opening night audience was most responsive and seemed to thoroughly enjoy being led into this blend of fantasy and reality that built up to an unexpected and most dramatic ending.

M. M. Dant Has Christening At Long Beach

Several Palm Springers were in Long Beach yesterday to attend the christening of the SS M. M. Dant, sponsored by Mrs. Charles Dant. The ship is a companion ship to the Charles Dant, now in the Orient.

Dant and Russel Lumber Company also owned the State Steamship Lines, a Pacific transport line serving the west coast and the Orient. Jack Dant, president of the lines is the son of Mrs. Dant and the late Mr. Dant.

The christening was followed by a reception and cocktail party aboard ship.

Those from Palm Springs attending the ceremony, were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Camp, Mr. and Mrs. St. Slocom, Miss Gertrude Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Hopkins, Mrs. Ruth Hardy and Rev. and Mrs. William Blonden.

Honors Visitor At Luncheon

Mrs. Irving Snyder was hostess Tuesday at a luncheon at the Racquet Club which honored Mrs. Herman Cornell, who is the houseguest of Mrs. Nate Milnor.

A long low floral arrangement centered the luncheon table in the Garden Room. Guests were Mesdames Hathaway Kemper, Grace Pope, Charles Farrell, Henry Reid, and Mrs. Edward Treadway of San Francisco.

Enjoy Skiing At Big Bear

Skiing is the favorite sport of the Maurice Geraghty family of 1557 South Riverside Drive, and the weekend found them taking advantage of the snowfall at Big Bear. The Geraghtys' and their three sons, Kerry, Mike and Ricky stayed at the home of their long-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hamilton, who own the Hamiltair Ranch at Lake Arrowhead. Hamilton, now retired, was former president of Lockheed and was responsible for building the Hamilton propeller which is used on the majority of propeller-driven aircraft.

Indians to Meet Big Test Tomorrow at San Jacinto

Must Win or Be Eliminated In RCL Race

County Loop Teams Start 2nd Round in Title Scramble

It's a practically make or break for Coach Al Kazmier and his Palm Springs High School Indians tomorrow night when they start the second half of the Riverside County League basketball season against San Jacinto on the latter's hardwood.

An Indian victory would keep them in the thick of the campaign for the 1957 crown, a defeat would just about eliminate them. AS THE RCL started its second round, the Braves were in a tie for fourth place with Beaumont. They are two games out of first place with seven games to go.

In the first round, San Jacinto defeated the local lads 55 to 44. Since then, Kazmier's boys have come along fast after dropping the next two. From an 0-3 rating, they are now 4-3.

THE BIG GAME in the circuit tomorrow night will pit Elsinore against Banning. Banning won the first round clash but Elsinore has won six straight since then and is leading the loop by one game with a 6-1 record. Banning, in a second spot tie with San Jacinto, has a 5-2 mark today.

In other games Beaumont meets Hemet and Coachella's Arabs tangle with Perris which hasn't won a game so far in RCL competition.

The Bee teams of all schools have the same schedule tomorrow night. In their first encounter, Palm Springs Papooses defeated San Jac Bees, 44-25.

URC LOSES, 44-106

RIVERSIDE — Westmont College of Santa Barbara trampled the University of California at Riverside, 106-44, Wednesday night in a nonconference basketball game.

Mantle Debate At Showdown Stage Today

Slugging Champ to Meet Yank Chief in "Heavy" Parley

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer
Mickey Mantle and Yankee General Manager George Weiss, having dispensed with the preliminaries, settle down to brass tacks today and if the site of their salary talk is a factor, the young slugger is a $60,000 cinch to get what he's asking.

Weiss and Yankee co-owner Del Webb will be among those present when Mantle is honored as "Man of the Year," by Sport Magazine today. Weiss has indicated he will begin "heavy negotiations."

EACH SPEAKER at the ceremony will get up and praise Mickey to the sky. Then it will be Weiss' turn to speak about Mantle's baseball virtues. What can he possibly say? "the bum can't hit a curve ball."

Mantle stacks up as the Yankees' biggest financial headache but two more of their players who aren't fixing to budge until they're offered more money are Don Perfect Game Larsen and Bob Grim.

Latest Yankee players to sign were shortstop Gil McDougald and first baseman Joe Collins, each of whom agreed to terms Wednesday after receiving raises.

THE YANKEES, however, aren't the only club with salary problems.

Southpaw Warren Spahn and outfielder Hank Aaron both are asking for more money from the Milwaukee Braves. Spahn, a 20-game winner last year, left Milwaukee for his home in Hartshorne, Okla., Wednesday after explaining he got "nowhere" in his salary discussions.

The Detroit Tigers admit they "haven't heard a word" from southpaw Bill Hoft, another 20-game winner, and Cleveland General Manager Hank Greenberg failed in his effort to sign Early Wynn, still another member of the 20-victory circle.

Harris Drafted By Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA — The Philadelphia Eagles opened the National Football League selection meeting today by drafting Jimmy Harris, crack quarterback who led the Oklahoma Sooners to two straight national collegiate football championships.

The Eagles tapped Harris, rated one of the most dangerous running quarterbacks in college football, and announced immediately they already had signed the Sooner signal caller to a 1957 contract.

Moss Upsets Aussie Ace in Net Feature

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — "Doubles" competition in the South Florida tennis tournament began today but the biggest buzz here was all about young, unheralded Jerry Moss' upset over Australian star Mervyn Rose in the singles.

Moss, a student at the University of Miami, defeated the far more experienced Rose, 6-4, 6-2, Wednesday marking the Aussie's first setback on his U. S. tour. Rose was the only favorite to suffer defeat.

Master Boing in 'Anita Debut' Next Saturday

Outstanding racing stars appearing in the double-stakes' attraction at Santa Anita Park Saturday will bring to a banner close the annual Charity Week to raise 100% profits for civil welfare.

First start of the famed French-bred Master Boing in the $25,000—added San Marcos Handicap, at 1 1/4 miles on the hillside-infield turf course, since winning the Washington, D. C., International at Laurel last November, will attract world-wide interest. He will be ridden by the celebrated Rae Johnstone, who has campaigned in 12 countries. Running against the invading celebrity will be Traffic Judge, Blue Volt, Vaquero II, and possibly Honeys Alibi and Holandes II, among others.

The heralded Cal-bred Prince Khaled, striving for his second straight stakes of the meeting in the $50,000-added California Breeders' Champion at 1 1/16 miles, will be another head-liner to bring out the crowd to add to the more than $9,000,000 realized for charity from racing operations at Santa Anita. Opposing the Khaled colt, being rated the fastest ever raised in the State, will be Gold Cover and Shoplifter-win, that chased him in the Breeders' Trial, and Royal Academy, among others.

How Master Boing performs will determine his status for the guaranteed $135,000 Santa Anita Handicap on Feb. 23, and the $100,000-added San Juan Capistrano Handicap on the turf course on Mar. 9. Prince Khaled is pointing to the $100,000-added Santa Anita Derby on Mar. 2.

Honors for Dr. Strube

HOLLYWOOD — Dr. Charles H. Strube, executive vice president of Santa Anita Park, Wednesday night was presented the Horsemen's Benevolent and Protective Association's annual award for contributions to the sport of horse racing.

COMPTON — Moberly, Mo., maintained its leadership for the second straight week in the National Junior College Athletic Assn. basketball rating released today.

Injury Forces Venturi From Phoenix Open

Play Starts Today in $15,000 Event with None Favored

PHOENIX, Ariz. — The $15,000 Phoenix Open opened today, but their newest and most persistent challenger was laid up with a painful arm injury.

Ken Venturi, the young San Franciscan who gave the pros fits as an amateur in the Masters Tournament last year, and turned professional two months ago, withdrew from the tournament because of strained ligaments in his left arm.

He had just shot a two-under-par 68 to tie for runnerup honors in Wednesday's pro-amateur event, when he complained of sharp pains in his left arm and wrist. His partner in the pro-am, Dr. E. Payne Palmer Jr., of Phoenix, advised Venturi to withdraw.

George Bayer, Los Angeles, the longest hitter in golf, had a 66 and teamed with Dizzy Dean to win the pro-am title with a best-ball score of 60.

There was no apparent favorite when the pros went to the starting tee this morning. The defending champion is National Open titleholder Dr. Cary Middlecoff.

"WOW WHATTA WIND"

Old man wind really knocked me for a loop Saturday in the desert.

The wind got so strong that it snapped off seven poles making a half-mile break in my transmission line to the Twentynine Palms and Desert Hot Springs area.

Construction crews from Twentynine Palms, Palm Springs and from Riverside worked all day and into the night—most of the time fighting wind and biting, wind-driven sand in order to get me back in service.

My long absence, I know, inconvenienced you, and I'm sorry about that. I'm sure glad to be back on the lines again.

Sincerely,

Dr. Catherwood Re-establishes Offices in Palm Springs

Dr. William W. Catherwood today announced establishing his offices in new locations for the practice of medicine, osteopathy and surgery, at 775 North Palm Canyon Drive, Palm Springs, and in his residence, at 68-363 Treasure Trail, Cathedral City.

Dr. Catherwood, who has maintained offices here and in Lake Tahoe previously, for the past few months has been taking post-graduate study in San Bernardino, at the Laurel Hospital.

He is a graduate of the University of Southern California and Los Angeles College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons. He served as an intern in the Los Angeles General Hospital, and resident post-graduate physician at the Glendale Emergency Hospital.

Dr. Catherwood practiced for 13 years in Riverside, and was senior staff physician and surgeon in the Riverside Hospital. His father was minister of the First Baptist Church there for 28 years.

He is married, and they have a daughter, Susan.

Men Take Bus For Joy Ride

PASADENA — Two Monterey Park men have pleaded guilty to taking a "joy ride" on a Pasadena City Lines bus.

Jerome P. Gough and Robert A. Sullivan, both 24, were ordered Tuesday to return Feb. 19 for sentencing. The men were charged with driving the bus Monday after finding it unoccupied with its motor running.

Sons Enrolled In College Early

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (UP)—Mrs. William H. Martin is taking no chances that a predicted nationwide classroom shortage will crowd her sons out of an education at the college of their choice.

She has enrolled her two boys at Rutgers University slightly ahead of time.

Mrs. Martin has registered Robert, 12, for 1962 and Brooks, 10, for 1964.

"My purpose . . . is to get my boys in line," Mrs. Martin said. "I know it may not help, but it certainly will do no harm."

She wrote a similar letter to Dartmouth—just in case.

NEW cabs—completely new—stronger, roomier, smarter! New wider windshield. New inboard step, new Hi-Dri ventilation.

NEW hydraulic clutch standard in all models from pickup to tandem. Easier to operate—works like hydraulic brake. Clutch and brake pedals are suspended type!

NEW Styliside pickup bodies stand up to an extra cost. America's biggest pickup bodies! Side loading for easier with full-width body.

NEW riding comfort! Big new roomier cabs, completely new chassis suspension and increased visibility improve handling ease.

NEW chassis strength! New frames, up to 13% stronger. New sturdier front and rear axles! New higher capacity springs!

NEW power advances! Higher horsepower, free breathing, higher compression ratios, new Super-Liter air cleaner. Short Stroke engine design—V-8 or Six, in every model!

For '57 and the years ahead—
FORD TRUCKS COST LESS

LESS TO OWN . . . LESS TO RUN . . . LAST LONGER TOO!

LOOK! NEW FORD TRUCKS for '57

The Ranchero! More than a car, more than a truck—it's a completely new kind of vehicle. A real pick-up horse that handles more than half a ton.

Totally new Tilt Cab! America's lowest-priced,* most modern Tilt Cab line. Six complete new Series, up to 60,000 lb. GVW.

New pickup with Styliside body, standard at an extra cost, gives you stunning style and the biggest capacity of any half-tonner. Available in 5 1/2- and 8-ft. body lengths.

LOOK again!

They're modern through and through

The boldly modern styling you see just hints at how deep-down modern the '57 Fords really are!

New Ranchero rides, handles and looks like a modern car. It's a rugged truck that carries over half a ton—more than many standard pickups. Ford's all-new Tilt Cab Series brings modern design to the big-truck field. It's America's lowest-priced* Tilt Cab line.

New Ford pickups back up their modern styling with higher power, completely new cabs, a new kind of ride. Styliside bodies are biggest of any pickup.

The trucks shown here just touch the sweeping changes in the new Ford line for '57. See your Ford Dealer for complete details on the truck to fit your job.

RIVERA, 4 DOOR, POWER

Palm Desert

By GRETCHEN CHEESMAN
Mr. and Mrs. Bob Mathias spent Friday and Saturday here and were guests of Cliff Henderson. They spent Saturday around the big pool at Shadow Mountain Club.

Grant Withers spent a day or two on the desert and was a guest of Tom Brown.

"Coronation" drew a capacity crowd this week. Elizabeth Talbot-Martin satirical monologist was the start of the evening. The King was Miles Scottfield of Sacramento; the queen, Mrs. Yew of Honolulu, Hawaii, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dietz, the Prince was W. K. Bramwell of Hardin, Iowa and Palm Desert, and the Princess was Mrs. Janet Simmons of Vancouver, B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hanson (May and Bob of Pittsburgh, Pa.) arrived in the desert today and will be here for at least two weeks. They were accompanied by two friends from Butler, Pa., Mrs. Helen Sprankie and Mrs. Florence Wilder. These ladies will be guests at Villa Markley for their two week visit here.

Golf seems to have center stage these days. There was a mixed two-ball foursome Sunday afternoon for those who love the game, and a poolside sports show went on at the same time.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gokey and their two daughters, Bridget and Gretchen, flew in from Freeport, Ill., in their own twin motored Beechcraft. The Gokeys have opened their Sun Lodge and will remain here a month. Their guests, Mr. and Mrs. A. Capine, flew out with them and are guests, along with the two pilots at Firecliff Lodge. The first of the week will find Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wender, the Capines and pilots headed for Freeport. The Wenders have been here for several weeks. The Gokeys are building a beautiful home and are here to see its completion.

Among the many guests at Shadow Mountain Terrace are Stephen

E. Blewett, the Warren Mapes, F. E. Yates of Los Angeles, the Dewey Yates of Seattle, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Darling of Vancouver, B. C., the Alfred Baileys and daughters of Menlo Park, and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Creley.

The annual Shadow Ball at Shadow Mountain Club was as usual a brilliant and beautiful affair. The decorations were superb and the ladies in their lovely gowns made it so. Watching the crowd come through the doors into the Shadow Room, the following guests were seen: Dr. and Mrs. Chester Alcorn, Mrs. Isabelle Belyca and party, the Forrest Bowers with a large party, the Don Camerons hosted a table of 12, Edith Eddy Ward with a party of 19, the Lauren Burts, Keith Crouses, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dautrich, the Harold Parks, the Harold Powers, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Harvey with the Ralph Caplagers, the J. G. Gokays, the William Weners.

Cliff Henderson with a large group, the Ralph Hales, the Hal Kapps, the Ted Smiths, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Hoskins, Mrs. Jessie Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Huntton, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Foran, Mrs. Thelma Fodor, the Merry-mans, the Ed Gardners, Mrs. Frank Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. John Moor Robinson.

Mrs. Thomas Roche, Lt. Col. James Westerfield, Mary Ann Wahner, the Ottar Roens, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Odell, Edna Value, Mrs. Evelyn Sashland, the Earcel Ostlers, George McWilliams and family, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Ninemann, the Myron Millers, John Moyers, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Kleinjung and many, many more.

Mrs. Lucille Chism of Grants Pass, Ore., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lofland on San Pablo Street.

'Heart's Desire' Contest Started At Thrifty Drug

"Win your Heart's Desire in Thrifty Drug Stores' giant February giveaway," was the invitation issued today to local residents by Manny Borun, vice president of the pioneer California drug chain.

If one's "heart's desire" is to own a brand new car from the wonderful world of Autodynamics, they can win a 1957 Swept Wing Dodge Coronet sedan with all the automatic features.

TWO LUCKY CUSTOMERS who long for the economy and convenience of a Deepfreeze, made by Amana, will win deluxe models which store up to 550 pounds of frozen food.

"The gas range with a heart," O'Keefe and Merritt's new Starline gas range, will go to five additional "Heart's Desire" winners. This luxury range that makes cooking a pleasure lives up to its reputation as "a girl's best friend," Borun said.

There is nothing to write, name and address, no purchase necessary, and no limit on the number of times to enter the "Heart's Desire" contest in Thrifty Drug Stores' month-long promotion.

Entries will be received by the Palm Springs store until the close of business on Thursday, Feb. 28, but customers are urged to enter immediately so they can increase their chances of winning the Dodge, one of two Deepfreezes, or one of the five O'Keefe and Merritt Starline gas ranges which Thrifty has included in their jackpot of several thousand dollars worth of prizes.

More details of the free contest may be obtained from any clerk in the Palm Springs Thrifty Drug Store.

Spanish moss which drapes trees, fences and wires from Virginia southward, is not a parasite but an epiphyte or air plant related to the pineapple. It gets no nourishment from its host.

VACATIONING AT THE BILTMORE Hotel are Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Davis, well known Southland restaurant owners and former Palm Springs residents, and Art Thompson, internationally famous piano stylist who appears at the Davis' Cameo Room on Sunset Boulevard in Los Angeles, and who was a featured performer at Thunderbird Country Club during the tournament. Pictured at the Biltmore, they are, left to right, Johnny Davis, the Thompsons, Debbie Thompson, and Gladys Davis.

Talent Audition for Fair Scheduled Feb. 8 at Indio

Auditions for amateur talent for afternoon stage shows of the 1957 Riverside County Fair and National Date Festival will be held Feb. 8, from 3 p. m. to 6:30 p. m. at the Indio Woman's Club.

Gordon Wheatley, musical director for the fair's Arabian Nights Pageant, will conduct the auditions. Candidates should bring their own music; an accompanist will be available.

With the engagement of several professional entertainers for this year's stage shows, amateur talent will be limited to eight or ten top acts, Wheatley said. Singing, comedy, dance, instrumental singles, instrumental groups and variety acts are encouraged to try out. Artists are asked to audition in costume. Selected acts must be available for performance every day.

Cadillac

His Tenth...and His Greatest Thrill!

Nine times before he has stood in his dealer's showroom and accepted the keys to a new Cadillac car.

And yet, as often as he has re-enacted this glorious event, he knows that there is something very special about today.

For this is more than a new Cadillac. This is the newest and most advanced Cadillac car ever to find its way from drawing board to production line.

Just looking at it gives him a warm glow of pride and satisfaction. And imagine, for just a moment, the many wonderful thrills that yet await him as he takes the keys and starts off on his first journey home.

To begin with, there will be his discovery of Cadillac's brilliant new performance. The car is so responsive and so perfectly balanced that it will be a revelation.

Then, as he takes the sweep of the boulevard, there will be the added thrill of those admiring glances that will come from his fellow motorists.

And how satisfying it will be to find that even Cadillac owners have a special affection for the man in the new "car of cars".

And finally, of course, there will be the joy of that wonderful "welcome home" as he turns into the familiar driveway and comes to a silken stop.

For when a new 1957 Cadillac arrives, it is the prize of any family... and the pride of any neighborhood!

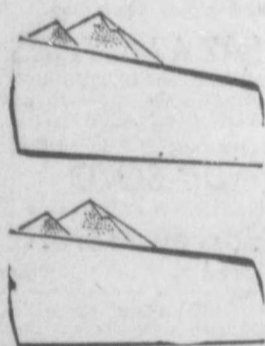

Why not come in soon for a preview of this thrilling experience? We have a 1957 Cadillac waiting for you in our showroom—and we will be happy to give you a personal demonstration at any time.

Whether it's to be your first or your second—or your fifth or your tenth Cadillac—you're in for a wonderful surprise!
